

FANTASY FOOTBALL LEAGUE 2013

POINTS SCORING

Your players may earn you points both individually and collectively. For the collective points (clean sheets) you still earn points for each individual player (e.g. you have 2 defenders from the 2nd team, 1 from the masters, 1 from the 3rds and the 1st team's goalie. If all MPFC squads kept a clean sheet, you would earn 15 points overall for clean sheets).

Points are as follows:

- CLEAN SHEET
 Goalies and defenders will receive 2 points if their squad keeps a clean sheet.
- PENALTY SAVE
 Goalies will receive 3 points for each penalty kick that they save (must be a save rather than a miss by the penalty taker and a goal scored directly from the save will negate the save). This does not apply to penalty shoot-outs.
- GOAL SCORED
 Goalies scorer will receive 3 points for each goal that they score.
- ASSIST
 The player providing the assist for any goal will receive 1 point.
- OWN GOAL
 The player scoring an own goal will be deducted 1 point.
- YELLOW CARD
 A deduction of 1 point for each player that receives a Red card
- RED CARD
 A deduction of 3 points for each player that receives a Red card.

HOW IT WORKS

Select your team across all 5 Middle Park FC teams. Earn points for your players' performances over the course of the season to earn MPFC bragging rights (as well as a sizeable financial reward).

Entry will cost $10 for each team that you enter. You will select 11 players -2 from each squad plus 1 from any of the squads. We'll open up a mid-season transfer window where you can trade up to 5 players (1 from each squad).

Your team will need to fit to a standard 4-4-2 formation.

Players will earn points for whatever squad they actually play in for any given week (e.g. if you had selected a reserves player who was promoted to the 1st team then they would be eligible to earn points in the 1st team game). However a player can only earn points for one game each weekend, which will be for the first game they are listed on the team sheet for.

HOW DO I ENTER?

Simply grab an entry form from the bar, choose your team from the squad lists below and hand it with your $10 entry fee to one of the committee members. Your form will be dated and you'll start earning points from the next weekend's games.

HOW WILL I SEE HOW I'M DOING?

Ultimately, we'll have the results and league table on the website, but initially the results will be updated in the Clubrooms on a Thursday evening.
